

IMPERIUM™

INTELLIGENT CORRECTIONAL CONTROL

COMPLETE TOUCH SCREEN JAIL CONTROL

Electronic Contracting's Imperium Jail Control System is custom designed to your facility's exact needs. The touch screen display shows your jail's floor plan, and you can easily change between different floors. Function buttons and status indicators are populated on your floor plans that give the control and monitoring abilities that you need. Imperium can also integrate with video surveillance to automatically display the associated camera when an intercom button is pressed on the touch screen. Inmates' names can be displayed on the graphic display next to the cell they occupy. Additional information such as work locations and restrictions can also be displayed, simply by touching a button.

CONTROL & AUTOMATE YOUR BUILDING'S UTILITIES

Imperium's function buttons give you complete jail control at the touch of a finger:

- Locking & unlocking of doors
- Lockdown ability
- Intercom control
- Paging control
- Audio monitoring
- Lighting control
- Water control
- Telephone control
- Power outlet control

JAIL SECURITY — SIMPLIFIED

The Imperium Jail Control System makes security easy:

- Touch screens that show vital building activity
- Retrofit without costly field device changes
- Switch between compressed and detailed graphic screens
- Display color coded text for each cell
- Door status indicators show real-time door position activity
- Door lock buttons control lock and unlock functions
- One-button emergency gang release
